When You Are Broke.

Application was made at half a dozen stores before the man could get one ten dollar bill for his roll of ones.

"I don't see," said the man's companion, "why you went to all that trouble. You are going to pay the money right over to your tailor. Why didn't you give him the one-dollar bills?"

"Because it would make a bad impression," was the reply. "I am broke, but I don't want him to know it. Whenever you get in that fix pay your debts with the largest bills you can get hold of. It enhances your value in the estimation of tradesmen and paves the way for further credit. A fellow will think a heap more of you if you pay with one five-dollar bill than with five ones. A handful of chicken feed indicates that you had to do some pretty lively hustling to get the money, and that there isn't much left where that came from. A man who really has money can afford to pay in pennies if he feels like it, but he who has but little can keep up his credit only by using large bills."
—New York Times.

His Explanation.

Some evenings ago the wife of a local lawyer was giving a formal dinner, but the courses were served as far as the entree before the hostess' husband made his appearance. He did not explain the reason of his tardiness beyond the usual "Detained on important business," and naturally the bad quarter of an hour was reserved by the offended wife until a more propitious moment. When the guests had departed and they were by themselves she prepared to upbraid him.

"You might have come home early for once," she began in teary tones.

"Well, if I had, some of your dearest friends would have spent the night in jail," he replied.

Then he explained that he had been busy bailing two of her women friends out of jail. They had been run in for speeding. The explanation sufficed and peace was restored.
—San Francisco Call.

Says the Detroit Free Press: We have denounced the custom that has been degrading our working people and creating privileged classes among the patrons of our barber shops and our Pullman cars and our hotels and a whole growing host of other conveniences. Yet when we have the chance to break the fetters we have foolishly bound about ourselves we laugh and go on tipping.

Mrs. Elizabeth H. Martin

HAD FRONTAL HEADACHES

EYES BOTHERED ME

DROPPING IN MY THROAT

MRS. ELIZABETH H. MARTIN,
332 Bowen Avenue, Chicago, Ill., Chaplain Garfield Circle, writes:

"Peruna has been a blessing to our family for a good many years, as we have all used it off and on for colds and catarrh, and I have given it to all of my children with the best of results.

"I found that a cold left me with catarrh of the head in a very bad form.
My head was stopped up, I had frontal headaches, my eyes bothered me, and there was a nasty dropping in my throat which nauseated me and made it impossible many times for me to eat my breakfast.

"As soon as I began to use Peruna I found it relieved me, my head soon cleared up and in a remarkably short time I was rid of catarrh.

"I can, therefore, give my personal experience with your valuable medicine, and am pleased to do so."

People who prefer solid to liquid medicines can now secure Peruna tablets, which contain the medicinal ingredients of Peruna.
